ENGLISH

Questions 1-3 are based on the following passage.

Young people must be educated in modern science, its methods and its mental attitudes. Without this education they will find the modern world utterly incomprehensible. But they cannot be good citizens of the world, or of their own national state, unless they are intellectually and imaginatively aware of the values which underlie human beliefs, motives and conduct. In this troubled period of human history, religion and the humanities are as vital as science to the education of good members of a good society.

ANALYTICAL SKILLS

According to Albert Einstein's famous theory of relativity, time travel is theoretically possible. Assuming that time travel were to be made possible through some technological breakthrough, it would be advantageous to send someone back in time to prevent the assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand in 1914 and thus keep World War I from ever occurring.

8. The argument above makes which of the following assumptions?
- A. It is not possible to alter a significant current in world history merely by changing a single event
 - B. The technology necessary for time travel is likely to be developed in the near future
 - C. If Franz Ferdinand had not been assassinated, some other catalytic event would have led to the start of World War I
 - D. The assassination of Franz Ferdinand was the crucial event that triggered the start of World War I
